Beautiful, pleasant fall weather—just cold enough to make us feel good.

To cure dull times—apply an advertisement to the afflicted part.

All who advertise do not get rich, but precious few get rich without it.

We call special attention of our readers to the fact that our clever young friend C. F. Freeman, has a business engagement for the fall and winter with Mr. H. L. Dunn, at Egypt. Clabe is a polite and accommodating gentleman, and will appreciate a liberal patronage from his friends. This firm carries a large stock of general merchandise, including everything kept in the dry goods and grocery line, and pay the highest market price for all kinds of country produce, and cotton seed especially.

A CLEAR HEAD; good digestion; sound sleep; a fine appetite and a ripe old age, are some of the results of the use of Tutt's Liver Pills. A single dose will convince you of their wonderful effects and virtue.

A Known Fact.

An absolute cure for sick headache, dyspepsia, malaria, sour stomach, dizziness, constipation bilious fever, piles, torpid liver and all kindred diseases.

Tutt's Liver Pills

No misty about it. When the Shakers offered some time ago to give away a bottle of their Digestive cordial to any one who might call at their New York office, there was a great rush and a great many people thought they were crazy.

Subsequent events prove it to have been a very clever advertising transaction, for although they gave away thousands of bottles, it was in the end profitable nearly every one that took a free bottle came back for more and paid for it with pleasure, saying they had derived better results from its use than from any other medicine they had ever used.

There is nothing so uniformly successful in the treatment of stomach troubles as the Shaker Digestive cordial, and what is better than all it relieves at once.

Lazol, the new form of castor Oil is so palatable that children lick the spoon clean.

OFFER EXTRAORDINARY!

Many subscriptions to THE MESSENGER expire with this issue. To those who stick the paper through the campaign, and whose time expired with the election, we make this offer: For one dollar cash we will send you THE MESSENGER from now until the 1st day of January 1897. If you want to read one of the best reform papers in the State, don't miss this chance; it is certainly cheap enough, and we guarantee to do our part in keeping the paper up to a first-class standard. The postmaster's notice will be held until you send it you get to see rapidly, corruption, and mismanagement in our government "ripped up the back," send us one dollar at once.

The death of our friend C. V. Abernethy who has been for years an invalid occurred at Okolona on Wednesday Nov. 17th. Mr. Abernethy was well known in this county and maintained the reputation of an honorable, upright man. He belonged to a family who for personal integrity and true manliness have no superiors and he never brought reproach upon his parents, brothers or sister. Peace to his ashes.

Our Chickasaw friends are aware of the fact that we have been very lenient with them and have not asked for a cent during the past spring and summer, but the time has come when a little money is in circulation, and we are very much in need of money to keep the Messenger in motion, hence it would be a good time to pay the little amounts due this office. All who know themselves to be indebted on subscription will confer a favor by sending this bill.

Geo. W. Smith of Van Vleet is entitled to the commendation of every honorable man in the country. Mr. Smith was an officer of a household club and went to the polls on the day of the election to vote his party ticket, but when he found his Populist neighbors and friends ranged from the poll books and heard a candidate on the ground threaten that he would be thrown out if such men as H. K. Neal were allowed to vote he voted a straight Populist ticket, and at the meeting last Friday he gave $5.00 to present the credentials who perpetrated the fraud. All honor to such men as George Smith, who in turn will see long begin presenting the gospel and see "see any," he will not be ashamed or afraid, this money so-called proachers at this day and time to rebuke wickedness in high places, as did the Master nearly nineteen hundred years ago.

NOAH WEBSTER'S DISMAY.

Relief Comes, When the Rest of the Matter is Explained.

Mr. Parsons, who is a well-preserved man of seventy-five years, came to Hartford when a lad in 1834, and for several years was employed in the book store of Hildnap & Hamersly. Noah Webster was a daily visitor to the book store. When Mr. Webster had his dictionary placed on the market the success of his effort was phenomenal, and much to the surprise of all saw an advertisement in a New York paper offering to sell it at auction among other articles. This had a disheartening effect on Mr. Webster. He went to the store of Mr. Booth, the bookseller in New Haven.

"Are you Mr. Booth?" said Webster.

"Yes, sir," said Booth.

"Is it true," said Mr. Webster, in a trembling voice, with eyes very moist, "that you are selling my dictionaries at auction?"

"Are you Mr. Webster?" said Booth.

"I am."

"Well, now, Mr. Webster," said Booth. "I'll tell you all about it. I only bought one copy, for which I paid the full retail price. I thought I might work off a lot of unsalable stuff by putting into my sale one of your books. I expected to lose money on that, but I thought I could make it up on the others." The relief that Mr. Webster experienced can be imagined. —Hartford Courant.

BUENA VISTA NORMAL COLLEGE,

(Chartered in 1885.)

R'Y STATION, EGYPT, CHICKASAW CO., MISS.

(On Mobile & Ohio R. R.)

The new management have just bought this entire College property, and will make a life work of it. It is too late to issue the usual Catalogue, and will therefore use the columns of five newspapers instead to make public our announcements for the 10th Annual Session.

We will organize the faculty for the various departments of the Arts and Sciences as rapidly as possible.

The 10th Annual Session opens on Tuesday, September 17th, 1895. Our school work is arranged under the following:

SCHOOLS:

School of English Elements.
School of English—Complete.
School of Mathematics.
School of Sciences.
School of Languages.
School for Teachers—Methods and Practice.
School of Business—Forms and Accounts.
School of Music—Instrumental and Vocal.
School of Arts—Pen, Oil and Crayons.
School of Military Tactics.

TERMS:

Boarding pupils, in all literary studies, reduced to $10.00 per month. This includes furnished room, board, fuel, light and tuition. For day pupils we will make special terms on application. Music and Art at popular prices. No reductions except for protracted sickness.

Worthy young people of limited means desiring to attend school will please inform us. Our motto is to turn none away.

SUPERIOR ADVANTAGES.

Experienced teachers; a healthful place; not a railroad town; fine moral training; no extravagant dressing; our Normal pupils successful teachers. We labor for the progress of each pupil. No vices nor temptations. Among religious and hospitable people. We take care of pupils. Expenses very low.

We are not stereotyped, but call the best features of the Pestalozian, Kindergarten, Objective, Topical, Analytical, Synthetic, Normal and German methods. Our aim is to impart a thorough and practical education. For further particulars call on or address:
